

Make smarter buying choices and vital budget savings

Hi [insert name],

With Christmas fast approaching, we thought we'd get in touch to tell you about the great ways in which we can help you make smart buying decisions, and save money at the same time.

Firstly, we'd like to repay your loyalty over the years with a 10% discount on all your orders, so you could be making savings which could be spent on more text books or serving healthier meals in the canteen (Jamie Oliver would be pleased).

You can claim your discount when you visit our website, along with place orders on credit and take advantage of our latest special offers.

Secondly, we'd like to remind you of all the services we provide to help you make smarter choices when deciding which lockers, archive shelving and storage systems are most suitable.

We've supplied and installed storage equipment to hundreds of schools, colleges and universities all over the country, so we know how to help you make the right choices and pick the most suitable and reliable equipment.

You can call or email our experienced customer service team on our unique, free helpline and they'll provide you with expert advice on the most suitable locker combinations, archive shelving and storage systems.

New products and a new website, but the same high quality service

If you've visited us online recently you'll know about our website's recent facelift.

Its new features include:

- User friendly navigation
- Keyword search tool
- Detailed product descriptions
- Customer reviews
- Enhanced ecommerce functionality

The website is regularly updated to include our latest products, and you'll be pleased to know that our prices are updated just as frequently, because we always want to make sure we're offering you the lowest prices and best deals around.

High quality equipment and over 20 year's expertise
